EDWARDSVILLE - Evan Eckhardt is only in kindergarten, but she’s already making a difference in her school community.

For her positivity, Evan Eckhardt is a Student of the Month for the Edwardsville Community Unit School District #7.

Eckhardt, a kindergarten student at Leclaire Elementary School, loves to play outside and practice her reading. She has especially enjoyed learning her letters this year at Leclaire, and she is becoming a stronger reader every day.

Her favorite part of coming to school is seeing her friends. Eckhardt has made an impression as a kind, optimistic student. She is a good friend, and her classmates have responded in kind.

So far, Eckhardt has a few favorite memories of her school year. She is delighted by what she has learned in class so far.

“I liked when we voted for our favorite cookie,” she remembered.

She has a lot of fun at school every day and feels close to her classmates and teacher. She noted that she enjoys spending time with her family when she is out of class.

“I like to swim in Grandma and Grandpa’s pool,” she shared.

Eckhardt has already made impressive progress as a student at Leclaire, and her teachers and family can’t wait to see her continue to do great work.

Congratulations to Evan for this recognition by the Edwardsville Community Unit School District #7!
