EDWARDSVILLE - The Edwardsville High School girls swim team hosted the annual Swim for HOPE Meet this past Saturday at Chuck Fruit Aquatic Center and squad members were able to participate in some events normally not available in the high school season.

Edwardsville won the meet with 411 points, followed by Sacred-Heart Griffin with 295 points and Glenwood with 227. Other team scores are below in a standings summary.

“Proceeds from the meet were donated to the Allison’s HOPE Foundation,” Edwardsville head girls swim coach Christian Rhoten said. “We had a great turnout and a great swim meet for a great cause.”

Rhoten listed these girls as Saturday standouts:

Savannah Grinter in the 200 freestyle and 200 free relay.

Allison Naylor in the 100 butterfly and the 200 free relay.

On Thursday, Oct. 25, Edwardsville hosts O’Fallon in a Senior Night dual meet. Start time is 5:30 p.m. for the Senior Night event.
