EDWARDSVILLE/COLLINSVILLE - WSIE 88.7 the Sound, St. Louis' home for great Jazz, Smooth Jazz, Blues, Easy R&B and so much more, will feature its Second Annual Music Series on the fourth Saturday from April-September. The station broadcasts from the campus of Southern Illinois University Edwardsville.

This year's series lineup boasts, "An eclectic blend of music and artistry, reflective of the music that listeners enjoy on WSIE," said WSIE General Manager Jason Church.

Included in the 2024 WSIE Music Series lineup are several St. Louis-based acts including Janet Evra, Tracer, The Ryan Marquez Quartet, The Lady J Huston Show, Soul Café, Black Magic: The Santana Experience, The Yacht Rockers and Deacon Dan: Tribute to Steely Dan.

The Series was created to fulfill several community needs. "The WSIE Music Series not only provides a nice outlet for music lovers in the Metro area to enjoy fantastic music, but it also gives our talented and hard-working St. Louis musicians another opportunity to perform in front of music fans,” explained Church. “It’s a fantastic way for our region to help support this heritage, community-supported radio station.”

The first of six dates will be Saturday, April 27 at the Miner’s Historic Theatre, 204 W. Main St., Collinsville. The ticketed event will feature Janet Evra, Tracer, and The Ryan Marquez Quartet.

The remainder of the series will be presented on the fourth Saturday of the month, through September, on the outdoor amphitheater stage at Old Herald Brewery & Distillery, 115 E. Clay St., Collinsville. Shows at Old Herald will have a suggested donation of $10 per entrant, in support of WSIE 88.7 the Sound.
