U.S. WOMEN'S NATIONAL TEAM TO PLAY WORLD CUP TUNE-UP

MATCH AT BUSCH STADIUM: The United States Soccer Federation on Thursday announced that the U.S. Women's National Team would play a tune-up match for the FIFA Women's World Cup on Thursday, May 16 at Busch Stadium in St. Louis

The match, against an opponent to be announced, will kick off at 7 p.m., and is part of the “Countdown to the Cup” tour the team will be on in its preparations for the Women’s World Cup in France in June and July.

This will mark the second time the USWNT has played at Busch Stadium, the first since 2015 when they defeated New Zealand 4-0 in a tune-up match for the 2015 FIFA Women’s World Cup. The United States won the championship match 5-2 over Japan in Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada.

Tickets for the match will go on sale Dec. 13.
