

Bethalto Fire Department Gets Ready For its 100th Annual Homecoming Weekend

by Chris Rhodes, Reporter
August 21 2019 3:17 PM

adult large

imprint location: LEFT CHEST imprint size: 3.5"W X 3.5"H item color(s): BLACK imprint color(s): WHITE
 GRAY INK, SCARLET

Artist: TP	Sales Rep: KN	Des: _____
APPROVAL FORM		imprint color(s): <input type="checkbox"/>
PLEASE check <input type="checkbox"/> the following CAREFULLY:
<input type="checkbox"/> ARTWORK DETAILS	 The accuracy of your order is guaranteed.          By signing below, you certify that the production as shown and verbiage meet the requirements of Silk Worm, Inc. to print.
<input type="checkbox"/> SPELLING, GRAMMAR, PUNCTUATION
<input type="checkbox"/> ARTWORK COLOR(S)
<input type="checkbox"/> SIZE OF ARTWORK
<input type="checkbox"/> PRINT LOCATION
<input type="checkbox"/> APPROVED by: _____
Graphics Coordinator email: proofing@silkworm.com

BETHALTO - For 100 years, the Bethalto Homecoming on Labor Day Weekend has been a popular event. This year, with around 25 vendors, major bands, and several rides for families to participate in.

Bethalto Fire Department uses this event to help raise money for the department. The fire department has a fish stand where they will be selling fish, fries, onion rings, soda, and water.

The fire department will also be selling t-shirts to raise money for the injured Bethalto firefighters, Captain Brian Buhs and Firefighter Alex Ocepek, who remain off work since March of this year. The price of the shirts is $20 and can be found at the fish stand during the homecoming.

The band lineup will be Whiskey Dixon which will play on Friday from 6-10 p.m. Then on Saturday Throw the Hornes will play from 6-10 p.m., On Sunday from 6-10 p.m. The Steve Ewing Band will play then to close out the homecoming on Monday Nightlife will play from 12-4 p.m.