

Gateway Arch Park Foundation Announces Extended Winterfest Holiday Hours

December 24 2021 7:15 AM

ST. LOUIS - Gateway Arch Park Foundation's Winterfest in Kiener Plaza will be open every day from December 25, 2021 through January 2, 2022, allowing St. Louisans and visitors alike more time to enjoy the thrill of ice skating in the shadow of the Gateway Arch. Presented by Bank of America and World Wide Technology and produced in partnership with the St. Louis Blues, the pop-up community ice rink will close for the season on January 2 at 8 p.m.

Enjoy ice skating, holiday lights and music, festive beverages and food, cozy igloos and sweet s'mores. Then, ring in the New Year with the entire family at Winterfest New Year's Eve Neon Nights Celebration on Friday, December 31 from 4 – 8 p.m. Neon Nights will feature DJ MaKossa, face painters, a balloon artist, a skating “Wild Lights” juggler, fire dancers, photo ops, giveaways and fireworks at 8 p.m.

Media are invited to capture the holiday magic happening at Winterfest. B-roll and photo opportunities as well as interview opportunities with Gateway Arch Park Foundation are available upon request.
