EDWARDSVILLE - The first round of main draw singles action wrapped up on Wednesday at The Futures Men's Pro Circuit Tennis Tournament held at Edwardsville High School.

The first round of singles play began Tuesday and concluded last night with the tournament's daily featured match, one that certainly delivered.

That match was Japan's Naomi Nakagawa winning in three sets over American Alexander Petrov (Q). Nakagawa dropped the first set 7-6 after a five-point tie break but bounced back to win the final two sets by scores of 6-2 and 6-3.

Eight of the 16 first round matches were decided in three sets.
