ALTON – Saddle up to test your knowledge at the upcoming trivia night sponsored by the Rotary Club of the Riverbend Alton/Godfrey. The cowboy-themed event is set for Saturday, March 9 at the Alton-Wood River Sportsman's Club in Godfrey; doors open at 6 p.m., with trivia starting at 7 p.m. Nick Darr, local radio personality, will serve as the evening's emcee.

Tables may be reserved in advance at a discounted rate of $175; individual seats and walk-ins are $30 each. Included in the ticket price: unlimited soda, as well as draft beer from two kegs, until the kegs are depleted. No outside alcohol is allowed, however a cash bar is available.

Participants are invited to bring their own snacks and decorate their tables with a cowboy theme. Prizes will be awarded for the finest lookin' table. Proceeds from the event benefits local child safety initiatives, such as safe sleep kits, car seats, outreach and more.

Trivia night registration and sponsorship opportunities are available through the Rotary website at <https://riverbendrotary.com/trivia>. Round sponsors for local businesses at $150 per table includes a 30 second announcement about each participating business prior to the round.

Additional trivia night activities:

- Silent auction of themed baskets
- Chances to win a barrel of booze!
- 50/50 drawing, plus Heads or Tails and other games!
