TROY, Ill. – The Troy/Maryville/St. Jacob/Marine Chamber of Commerce invites residents and visitors from throughout the Metro East to experience Art on the Streets: First Fridays on Friday, August 7, from 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. in beautiful Downtown Troy.

The free community celebration will once again transform the streets of downtown into a vibrant outdoor festival featuring live music, local artists, interactive art experiences, food trucks, shopping, family activities, and specials from downtown restaurants and businesses.

Whether you're an art enthusiast, music lover, foodie, or simply looking for a fun evening with family and friends, First Fridays offers something for everyone.

Live Music

Headlining the evening will be Ryan & Rainn, members of the popular Zach Bryan tribute band Revival, bringing an energetic country performance to downtown Troy.

The evening begins with opening performer Spencer McDole, who takes the stage at 5:00 p.m.

Experience Art Throughout Downtown

This month's "Art on the Streets" theme celebrates creativity in all forms. Visitors can enjoy:

- Interactive art displays
- Local artists showcasing their work
- Artwork available for purchase
- Creative demonstrations
- Family-friendly art activities
- Opportunities to meet local artists

Great Food and Sweet Treats

Bring your appetite! Food vendors scheduled to participate include:

- TakOzz
- D. Dirty Burgers
- Tongue Punch BBQ
- Heatrz
- Spud Shack
- That's a Wrapp
- Franko's Brats
- The Toasty Goat
- Courtesy Ice Cream
- Ramblin' Rounds

- Firefly Cotton Candy
- Zanny Popz & Pretzels
- Washington Kettle Corn
- Nothing Bundt Cakes
- Sweet Serotonin

Shop, Dine and Explore

Guests are encouraged to spend the evening exploring downtown Troy while supporting local businesses. Retail shops will welcome visitors, restaurants and bars will feature specials, and numerous street vendors will offer unique products and handcrafted items.

Children can also enjoy activities designed especially for younger visitors, making First Fridays a perfect evening for the entire family.
