ALTON — Another big week of high school football is here, and RiverBender.com is once again making its picks for games throughout the area.

Dan Brannan, Colin Feeney, and Chris Rhodes are putting their predictions on the line for Week 9, choosing the teams they think will come out on top in matchups across the Riverbend and Metro East.

There is plenty to watch this week, with several area teams looking to keep momentum going as the regular season moves deeper into October. Some of the picks were unanimous, while a few games created a little more disagreement among the RiverBender.com staff.

Here is how Brannan, Feeney, and Rhodes see the Week 9 games playing out:

Edwardsville at Collinsville

Granite City at Jersey

Civic Memorial at Taylorville

Marquette Catholic at Carlyle

East St. Louis at Naperville North

O'Fallon at Alton

East Alton-Wood River at Dupont

Vienna at Roxana

Piasa Southwestern at Hillsboro

Belleville West at Triad

Metro-East Lutheran at Hutsonville

Hardin Calhoun at Mt. Sterling Brown County

Carrollton at Concord Triopia

Greenfield Northwestern at Unity/Seymour
