WOOD RIVER - For East Alton-Wood River senior Maddie Stone, four years of volleyball have brought friendships and lessons in patience. Now being recognized for volleyball, Stone cited good grades as a quality that contributed to the honor.

Stone plays under coach Bethany Hoyland and also participates in basketball and softball.

Asked what she enjoys most about volleyball, Stone pointed to the relationships she has built.

“I love all the friendships that have come from it,” she said.

Stone is a Midwest Members Credit Union Female Athlete of the Month.

Stone said her high school career and involvement in sports have helped her grow.

“It helped me learn how to be patient,” she said.

She also credited her father for his support.

“My dad is my biggest supporter, even when he isn't there,” Stone said.

Stone does not plan to continue playing volleyball in college. She said she wants to pursue nursing.
